EXPERIENCE AND COMMITMENT

We're committed to help you meet the complex challenges of global trade—and seize opportunities in international markets.

GLOBAL TRADE SOLUTIONS FOR GLOBAL AMBITIONS

BMO Capital Markets provides the full trade finance capabilities and service commitment you need to build and maintain profitable relationships with global trading partners, including the following:

- Issuance, confirmation, discounting and refinancing of documentary letters of credit;
- Stand-by letters of credit or guarantees;
- Documentary collections;
- Buyer credits;
- Supplier credits.

ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY. COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE.

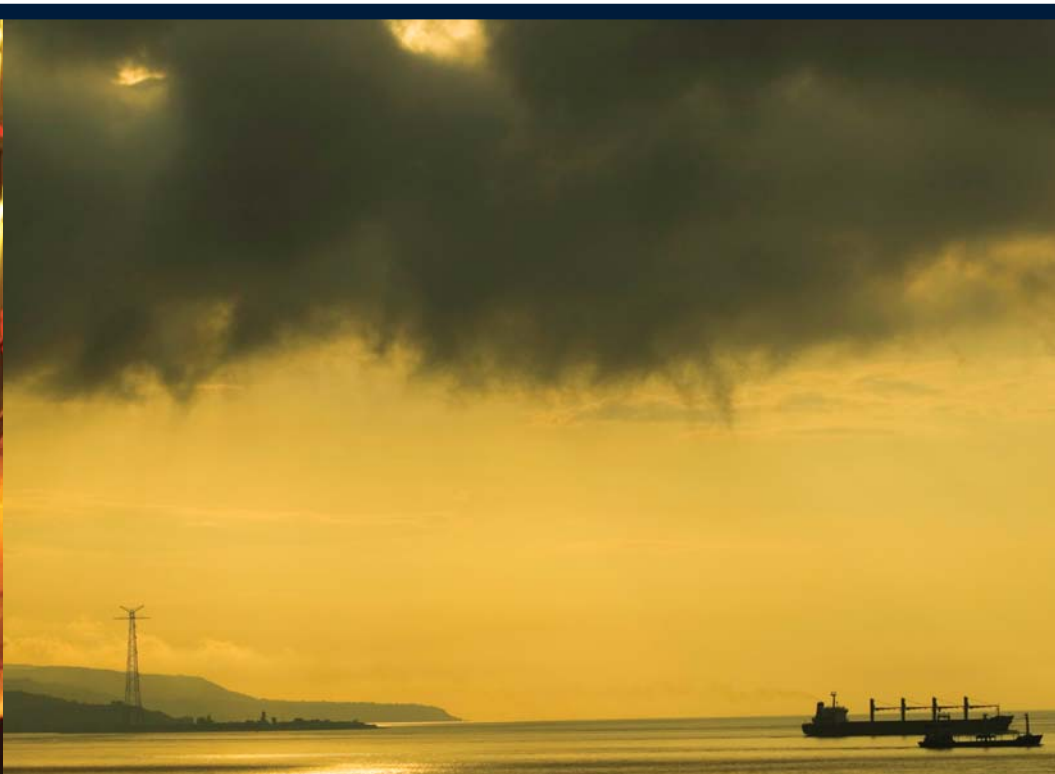

When you're doing business across the globe, access to current information is critical. BMO Capital Markets brings you advanced technology that helps bring your global trade ambitions to life. We make managing your trade activities efficient and effective, so you can focus on new opportunities.

EXPAND YOUR TRADE NETWORK

EASY ACCESS

With Tradevenue® Direct, there's no limit to how far your trade network can extend. BMO Capital Markets has built a powerful system that gives you instant, secure access to all your trade data. Whether you're at the office, at home or abroad, you can connect to Tradevenue Direct anywhere you have Internet access. That means you can travel as far as your product does—and monitor and manage your trade activity anywhere you are.

UNMATCHED SPEED AND ACCURACY

This easy-to-use system also helps you take full advantage of market opportunities. You can apply for and receive documentary and standby letters of credit and collections with unmatched speed and accuracy. And as new transactions arise, you can rely on this streamlined process to save time, improve productivity, reduce paperwork, and ensure that your letters of credit are dispatched promptly.

ADVANCED SECURITY FEATURES

The latest security features give you the flexibility to control access to your trade information. Access to Tradevenue Direct may be secured by smartcards that require a user PIN and incorporate digital certificates to ensure further security. You can also define user profiles to designate which people in your company will have access to the system and what level of access each of them will have.

POWERFUL CAPABILITIES

As trade volume grows and transactions become more complex, advanced tracking and reporting capabilities can help you manage the small details—and see the big picture.

COMPREHENSIVE REPORTS— CUSTOMIZED FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Your success in markets around the world depends on solid execution of your trade strategy. Tradevenue Direct enables you to seamlessly integrate all the components of your trade strategy—including your documentary letter of credit portfolio, which can be by purchase orders; standby letters of credit and guarantees and your documentary collections. With all this information at hand, you can use the system's flexible reporting tools to analyze your performance and fine-tune your strategy. You can save time by creating custom templates for frequent reports and transactions that reflect specific areas of focus for your company and your business. Tradevenue Direct also includes powerful data mining tools that help you build focused, customized reports. Its open architecture enables you to export data from these reports to other popular software programs for further analysis.

YOUR PORTAL TO THE FUTURE

BMO Capital Markets continues to invest in Tradevenue Direct to expand its capabilities to meet your changing needs. We'll keep you informed as new enhancements become available.
